

International Doc'Day 2025

Start of Zoom meeting

Introduction: Lexicoscope – in French

9:15-10:15

Presentation of the LIDILEM tool Lexicoscope

BREAK

Introduction: The collaborating institutions – in English

10:30-11:00

Presentation of the collaborating institutions: the PhD programmes for linguistics at Université Grenoble Alpes, University of Bergen, Aarhus University. Presentation of the research trip possibilities

Session 1 (11:00-12:00) – in English

11:00-11:20

Hygge in French press: a case study of the exoticization of Scandinavian cultures in French discourses – Syrine Jemour (AU/UiB)

11:20-11:40

Local stereotypes shape geospatial perception: The Case of Funic – Kirstine Boas (AU)

11:40-12:00

Are generalizations with the definite singular compatible with human nouns? A case study of the American – Ismaël Zaïdi (UGA)

LUNCH

Session 2 (13:30-14:30) – in English

13:30-13:50

Understanding language attrition: Designing an experimental case study in Andorran trilingual speakers – Francesca Sanvicente (UGA)

13:50-14:10

Adverb Raising in Danish vs. English – Julie Rohde (AU)

14:10-14:30

A Dialogue Hidden in Monologue: The Conjunction Car as an Argumentative Device – Insights from the PresseClim Corpus of French Climate Change News Articles – Johanna Gunn (UiB/UGA)

BREAK

Session 3 (14:45 – 15:25) – in English

14:45-15:05

Possessor Extraction in Danish and English – Maria Dahl (AU)

15:05-15:25

Gamification in Asynchronous French Pronunciation Learning: Enhancing Motivation for English-Speaking Learners through MOOCs by Aligning Motivational Aspects with Learner Profiles – Chloé Simon (UGA)

15:30: End of Doc'Day 2025

15:30-16:30 - Stroll in the streets of Grenoble

Participants are warmly invited to join the organisers and presenters for dinner in Grenoble after the event. Details to follow.